INTERNATIONAL SYMBOL OF ACCESS

ILLINOIS STATE LIBRARY

DEC 18 1972

ILLINOIS DOCUMENTS

Any building or facility that serves the public which is undergoing major remodeling or being built must comply to the standard specifications for facilities for the handicapped Illinois statute 1967.

The international accessibility symbol signifies compliance to the law.

The symbol identifies buildings, modes of transportation, and other forms of facilities which are barrier free to the aged, and individuals with temporary or permanent physical disabilities.

The Requirements For Display Are:

- A ground-level entrance to a building, or major entrance having a ramp (ratio 1' in 12') in lieu of steps.
- A doorway which is 32" wide to permit passage of a wheelchair—doors that open with one easy motion.
- Within the building, ramps instead of stairs (ratio 1' in 12') or access by the handicapped to elevators.
- Restrooms used by the public must have stall door openings not less than 32" wide with doors that swing out.
- Special parking spaces that are wider to provide room to transfer from auto to wheelchair.
- Provision for ramped or ground level access from parking area to sidewalk.
- Within the building, uniform doorway widths of 32" permitting access to offices and connecting work areas. (New structures must conform to 1967 Illinois Statute; existing structures, where feasible.)
- Grab bars in restroom stalls.

Recommended

- Water fountain and public telephones that are within vertical reach of persons seated in wheelchairs.
- Handrails on all stairways—extending 18" beyond top and bottom steps.
